Cut to the Chase

Tears in a Bottle #5
Luke 7:36-50

Astounding joy flows freely from astonishing forgiveness.

1 denarius = a day's wage... so...
500 denarii =

50 denarii =

the Pharisee; like people who rely on religious behavior to stand in favor with God.

the woman; like people who rely on God's grace for right standing with Him.

the Lord the only hope of all sinners to have God's forgiveness and favor.

You didn't offer water to wash my feet; she has washed them with her tears... You didn't greet me with a kiss; she has not stopped kissing my feet. You neglected the olive oil to anoint my head; she has anointed my feet with rare perfume. Luke 7:44-46

I tell you, her sins, and they are many, are forgiven — for she loved much. But he who is forgiven little, loves little. Luke 7:47

“Simon, let's cut to the chase. I didn't see anything from you. Yet you criticize this woman who has not stopped showing gratitude, love and joy. Has it ever dawned on you that those who really understand the joy of forgiveness are the ones who demonstrate loving gratitude? Could it be you show no love for me because you have little concept of your need for forgiveness and the forgiveness I have to bring you?”
