Sermon Notes Impact Players Step Up

All kinds of workplaces are full of people who want to contribute in meaningful ways, but not everyone knows how to be effective.

While others do their job, impact players do the job that's needed.
Liz Wiseman

example of Nehemiah

He refused to say, "It isn't the royal wine-specialist's job to rebuild old city walls a thousand miles away."

Compare Ezra 4:7-23 and Nehemiah 1:1-2:9, then ask what it took for Nehemiah to step up and make a difference.

example of Jesus

Jesus... went around doing good. Acts 10:38
So can I. But I may need to step up and do what seems beneath me or beyond me.

Do not merely look out for your own personal interests, but also for the interests of others. Have this attitude in yourselves which was in Christ Jesus, who, although He existed in the form of God, did not regard equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied Himself, taking the form of a bond-servant, and being made in the likeness of men... He humbled Himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross...

Philippians 2:5-7 (NASB)

At home, at church, at work or school or wherever;

- Where does someone need to do something?
- What can be different if I step up and take responsibility?
